How We Arrived Here

This was an equitable co-creation process among INEE Members.

- Reviewed our previous strategic framework
- Invited all INEE members to help shape our future
- Identified our new Impact and Outcomes to pursue together
- Developed a new theory of change to achieve those results
- Invited all INEE members to review and provide new feedback and inputs
- Finalized based on members' contributions

Strategic Priorities

(How We Organize Our Goals)

SP 1:
Provide thought leadership and support global advocacy

SP 2: Strengthen competencies of EiE stakeholders through capacity sharing & mutual learning

SP 3: Organize, curate,
and disseminate
EiE knowledge

SP 4: Promote the ethical production, sharing, & uptake of EiE data & evidence

SP 5: Facilitate meaningful,
equitable, & inclusive
engagement of INEE members in network activities & decision-making

Thematic Areas

(Entry Points For Our Work)

- Relevant in ALL of our Strategic Priorities
- Identified in accordance with members' needs and priorities and can change over time
- Three Categories:
 - Learning Levels
 - Cross-Cutting Topics
 - Education Modality

Application to INEE's Work and Results

- We will continue to be mission-driven and member-centric
- Our collective efforts will always contribute to the Outcomes we seek to achieve
- Cross-Cutting Elements will be mainstreamed into our planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation
- INEE will maintain its agility and adaptability to meet the evolving needs and priorities of members
- The perspectives, priorities, experiences, and expertise of members will equitably shape network decisions and all our shared work
